

Tips and Tricks for Palaeography by Caroline Adams

Half the battle with palaeography is understanding what the clerk is trying to do, so in this workshop we will be looking at letter forms and context.

Dr. Caroline Adams is a freelance archivist, palaeographer and historian.

She runs a research business, Key to the Past, and also teaches palaeography online as part of her own business and for the IHGS. She is an Associate of AGRA.

Until 2014, Caroline was Senior Archivist at West Sussex Record Office.
